To the Members of the Colorado River Indian Tribes

November 3, 2020

I, Amanda Barrera, would like to announce that I am running for Tribal Council. As a previous Council Member, I have experience in the Tribal Government realm and bring that experience with me.

Unlike past years, it has come to my forethoughts that we are sitting in a cusp, as all Tribal Nations are. With the impact of a global pandemic, COVID-19, and the 2020 Presidential election underway, it is of utmost importance that we, as Tribes, grasp firmly onto our Sovereignty and be a force to be reckoned with. We have a mighty voice in this world, and we shall remain CRIT Strong.

With the modern world knocking at our door, we must learn to navigate within these modern policies, the political arena, and technological ways, but not to forget our traditions and keep our future generations in mind as each decision we make will impact their success. There are many issues that need responsible leadership, active oversight and determined productivity.

A wise chief once said, "It's time we stop surviving, and start living." (Chief Joseph)

With this, I ask for your vote. A vote for dedicated leadership to ensure the future generations of our Tribes to thrive.

Vote for me for Tribal Council on December 5, 2020.
